Because the Government already has these interview reports, the defense is not providing additional copies at this time but will do so upon request.

3. Communications between the Government and Michael Rains pertaining to promises and representations made by the Government to Mr. Bonds before his Grand Jury testimony, and events subsequent to the promises and representations but before he testified.

Because the Government already has these communications, the defense is not providing additional copies at this time but will do so upon request.

4. BB3263 – 3269; BB3470-3473.

Because the Government already has these documents, the defense is not providing additional copies at this time but will do so upon request.

5. Depending upon the outcome of pending Motions in Limine, Defendant reserves the right to offer into evidence purported laboratory documents produced in discovery by the Government, for the purpose of contradicting, explaining and/or impeaching purported “test results.”

Additional exhibits may be offered in evidence by the defense. Defense counsel believe that listing additional documents, which are impeachment evidence, would be inconsistent with the Defendant’s right to an effective defense. It would provide untruthful Government witnesses – if any there be – with advance notification of impeaching evidence, so that they could tailor their testimony accordingly.
